AUCTION BULLETIN

We are sure that the many owners of unused Furniture are not doing the best they can to help themselves, or their neighbors. What does it profit you, that that old Bed suite shall stay year after year in the basement, or those old but very useful Chairs shall remain in the attic, you can absolutely sell them for fair value at any time in the Auction Rooms, and if you do not need the money, buy subsistence for a Lincolnshire Baby, there are many left in the few country, whose fathers died that we may be peacefully sleeping. It seems as if the Roches had a special spite against the beds and pastures where the writer played in boyhood, as they come back again and again to Hereward the Wake country to kill and maim chiefly women and little children. Look around for your left off Furniture and send it to Honolulu Auction Rooms. J. S. Ba' y.

THE PUBLIC ARE HEREBY INVITED TO CONSIDER THE COMMERCIAL LAW POINTS OF A PATENT. BEFORE MAKING AN APPLICATION FOR AN IMPROVEMENT.

It's not necessarily to make an additional number of parts or cost, in order to confine a claim. Most every article that contains old elements, can be improved upon by some means of another, without increasing its present value.

When an inventor claims an improvement, he is given credit for new idea only, although such idea have led to the perfection of the device. So therefore what we now present want is, new discoveries and ones that contains merits.

JAPAN'S FAMOUS STATESMAN REACHES EIGHTIETH MILESTONE

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)
 TOKIO, Japan, June 16.—Prince A. Yamagata, one of the "Genro" or elder statesmen of Japan, today celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary, hale and vigorous in spite of his age. He was a host at an elaborate dinner given to his many noble friends at his magnificent Tokio residence.

After cutting the electric power lines bandits blew up the safe of the postoffice at Sandy Creek, New York, and got away with $400 cash and $200 in stamps.
